

19th Annual Conference

Call for Supplier Presentations

FPPA welcomes supplier members to give 30-minute technical presentations during the 19th Annual Conference in Rancho Mirage, CA, Feb. 21-23, 2016. This is a great opportunity to provide your colleagues and customers educational information to better their businesses—all while positioning yourself as a thought leader and a go-to provider of products and services in the industry.

There are only six slots available this year, so sign up today! Simply complete the below and return with the $2000 participation fee to FPPA headquarters (1350 Main St. Springfield, MA, 01103). The fee includes one complimentary registration and a free table for scheduled one-on-one sessions with platemaker members—a more than $1,000 value.

Note: this is a great time to get involved or continue your involvement with FPPA conferences. With the help of our new management company, we are working hard to increase membership, and we do expect strong platemaker attendance.

For more information on the conference as well as a schedule of events, visit fppa.net/events.

Conference Theme: Securing the future of the corrugated prepress and platemaking trade shop model.
